

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Heavy rains all over Georgia are reported.

A great religious revival is going on in Georgia, Texas.

The number of cattle going northward from Texas is enormous and increasing daily.

The Columbia river has proven ruinous to cotton crops.

A stack of cotton covered with bolts and blossoms has been exhibited in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Southern Home, published in Charlotte, North Carolina, heads its Washington news "Yankee Congress."

A negro woman has been appointed postmistress at Jackson, La. It might have been worse, as a carpet-bagger wanted the office.

The report of yellow fever in New Orleans is erroneous, and is contradicted by the press and board of health of that city.

Colonel Geo. W. Brent, of Virginia, once Bragg's A. G., has recovered from the injuries received in the late Richmond court-house disaster.

Elizabeth Davis, wife of Henry Davis, of No. 102 Carroll street, Nashville, Tenn., committed suicide Tuesday night by jumping into a chandelier.

Senator Revels is in the bosom of his family at Natchez again. He doesn't like life in Congress, and his friends want him to quit and preach again.

A very rich gold mine has been discovered on the land of Mr. Harvey, in Appomattox county, Virginia. Several hundred dollars' worth of gold has been taken out.

Hon. T. L. Wigfall, of Texas, has bought number six, east of the Seaton lake, in Colorado, and gone to work. He is putting up a residence and a boarding-house for his miners.

The Jackson river says that many members of the Legislature are looking with longing eyes toward Vicksburg as the future capital of the State.

But Vicksburg seems to be growing "masterly in inactivity" and is not so much interested in the removal of the capital.

Elzy, appointed Alderman of Columbus, Mississippi, was one of the grand jury just organized. He made oath that he was never indicted, and had hardly taken his seat when the grand jury just organized.

The Ripley Advertiser says that farmers are complaining of a much more rain. They can do so little work that the grass is threatening the destruction of the crops to an alarming extent.

We are so much interested in the cotton has been greatly retarded in growth and injured in some degree by the late cold weather.

The mother of Tom Beas, colored, of Corpus Christi, Texas, died last week. She was born in Virginia in 1773 and was aged hundred and thirty-three years at the time of her death.

She was a servant of Washington's mother, but never "nursed George," and had only lived in Texas fifty years.

The crazy woman who has so long haunted Hollywood cemetery, Richmond, Va., has been taken by the superintendent of the cemetery.

The poor creature had dug a hole in the grave of her lover and night after night made her bed there and related with all the strains of madness all attempts to remove her.

R. S. Morse, the proprietor of the City and St. James hotels, in New Orleans, is feeling very ill.

He has been brought to Texas, much to the satisfaction of his friends, who say that he keeps longer and better than most men in New Orleans.

As for his health and excellence of flavor he says it is superior to any other in the market.

The Society of Alumni of the University of Virginia will meet at 9 o'clock a. m. on Wednesday, June 23, and at 10 o'clock the same day.

Hon. George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, will address the society (Thursday) Gov. John W. Stevenson, of Kentucky, will deliver the address before the Society of Alumni, which will be followed in the afternoon by the annual dinner.

The Bishops of Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama now use the pastoral staff which has been presented to them.

The pastoral staff is borne immediately before a Bishop, by his chaplain, in a processional, and he holds it in his hand when pronouncing the blessing.

An Episcopal ring has been presented to each of the above named prelates. The black and scarlet hood (D. D.) is worn by Bishops of Illinois, Tennessee, Arkansas, Florida and Mississippi.

The Knoxville Press and Herald says: "Mr. John Thum, of Nashville, has just received a letter from Eastern Prussia, from a committee of seven gentlemen, who represent the general thousand of the Mononites in that portion of Europe, who design immigrating to this country."

The committee on behalf of the proposed immigrants will visit Tennessee, and expect to reach Nashville early in September. They will then proceed at once to explore the country and arrange for the permanent settlement of their European friends.

The Mononites are a sect of the early European immigrants, who have been persecuted through a variety of fortunes, sufferings and vicissitudes. They date back to the Waldenses, and are scattered through the mountains of Prussia, and Germany, being more thickly settled in Holland than elsewhere.

INDIANS.

Sheridan's Account of Affairs on the Border—Bringing Again.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Gen. Sheridan, who returned to headquarters last night from a tour through the Indian country, has been about since the 24th of May. The trip has been a very successful one. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country. He has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country, and has been able to see the country.

NASHVILLE.

The Legislature goes for the Defining Railroads—The Aid of the Chancery Court leveled to Bring them to Law—Shelby Courts—Agricultural Scrip—Privileges to Sell Gravel—Artisan—Negro Constable Elected—County Revenue—To Reserve the School Fund.

Special to MEMPHIS APPEAL.]

NASHVILLE, June 25.—In the Senate, Mr. Cooper, of Bedford, offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

Mr. Cooper also offered a bill to amend the act relating to the Chancery Court, to give it jurisdiction of all suits in which the State is a party.

MISSISSIPPI.

Proposed Removal of the Capitol—The General Railroad Law.

Special to the Memphis Appeal.]

JACKSON, Miss., June 25.—Nothing of particular interest in the Legislature to-day. The Senate was engaged on the school bill.

A petition was presented in the House from the citizens of Vicksburg asking that the Capitol be removed to that city.

The Governor's veto of the general railroad law was taken up. The discussion was exciting.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

Mr. Miles, of Attala, was especially active. He denounced the bill as not being in the interest of any one but a few hangers on, and a few of the members who had been roped in. Miles is a native Mississippian.

FORGIVENESS SUMMARY.

The British-Chinese Treaty.

LONDON, June 25.—The London merchants insist at the foreign office on their objections to the Chinese treaty.

Isabella Adelaide.

PARIS, June 25.—It is reported that the ex-queen Isabella of Spain will sign her abdication to-day. Marshal Bazaine and other prominent persons will be present as witnesses.

Crops in France.

PARIS, June 25.—The Legation yesterday received a report that the government has satisfactory reports of the crops in France, and that the harvest will be good.

Leaves at Dinner.

LIVERPOOL, June 25.—At a banquet this afternoon, the mayor of Liverpool, Mr. James Smith, presided.

A Vessel Run Down.

LONDON, June 25.—The City of Brooklyn, which left port on the 24th instant for New York, was run down by the steamer of the same name, and was damaged.

Carpet—Emigrants.

LONDON, June 25.—The carpet weavers in London threaten to strike for higher wages.

United States Land Officers in Consultation—Limits of St. Louis—Hot and Showery Weather.

ST. LOUIS, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State, are now here in consultation regarding the recent construction of the homestead and graduation law by the general land office at Washington, by which he ordered all parties making entries under the homestead law to file their claims by the 1st of March, 1871.

St. Louis, June 25.—The United States Land Officers of the Brownsville, Springfield and Ironton districts, in this State,